Central Office, returned from Utica, where he had een to take charge of a young Englishman, about twenty-one years of age, named John A. Williams, who had been arrested by the Chief of Police of that who had been arrested by the Chief of Police of that city on suspicion of being concerned in the recent robbery of the Ocean Bank. Williams ciatimed that he was one of the persons engaged in the robbery, and said his accomplices were Charles Forest and Henry Ferguson. He gave as an excuse for divulging the secret that his confederates had played faise with him and refused to make a fair division of the spoils; that he had been acquainted with Forest and Ferguson five or six weeks previous to the commission of the burglary. There was an air of improbability and untruthfulness about the rambling and inconsistent statements of the prisoner, and General Superintendent Kennedy, as well as detective Fariey and others, totally disbeneved all he said. Accordingly, yesterlay afternoon, Williams was taken before Alderman O'Brien at the Fombs and discharged from custody. The motive of Williams for causing his own arrest and making the above statements is unknown. He apparently is mexperienced in crima and by some he is believed to be insane.

The game announced to take place to-day between the Eckfords and Stars will not come off. The Stars say they will probably play the Alphas Instead on the Capitoline grounds.

There will be fun enough on the Capitoline for one day. The Mutual Life Insurance Company's employes and the Allen Base Ball Club will play there, the Atlantes and Harmonics say they will play there, and now the Stars say they will play the Alphas there. Then there will be a contest between Gill and Chadwick in riding the velocipede and eat-ing "Banberry cakes." Weed & Decker, the proprictors, will have a match at counting stamps and tickets, and the larger Cleveland will work for a wager, and try to hold fifteen glasses of lager in one hand and ten sandwiches in the other.
